

Coresystems Transforms Data Access for Rolls-Royce Using Amazon Bedrock

View All Customer Stories

“The collaboration with AWS has been great from the start. They’ve been very helpful in giving us access to the technologies, in helping us implement them and make use of the latest models as soon as they were available ”

Jean-Thomas Célette
CEO, Coresystems

Coresystems' InsightLoop is helping organizations mine information and gain knowledge faster using generative artificial intelligence (AI). Take Rolls-Royce Power Systems. Its technicians struggled to access data across multiple systems, wasting valuable time according to Joern Lindstaedt, senior vice president of global customer service. Now, with InsightLoop, all the information they need is at their fingertips. As Coresystems' CEO Jean-Thomas Célette says, using Amazon Bedrock means the software development firm can keep data secure while delivering the power of the latest large language models.
