Lamda Development Gains Scale and Competitive Advantage for Customer Projects Using AWS

Leading Greece real-estate firm Lamda Development counts prestigious projects — including the regeneration of Ellinikon Airport, the biggest urban development in Europe — in its portfolio.

Leading Greece real-estate firm Lamda Development counts prestigious projects—including the regeneration of Ellinikon Airport, the biggest urban development in Europe—in its portfolio. Having an infrastructure that can operate at scale is critical to handle projects of this size. And as the company shifts from on-premises to cloud, says senior technology director Dimi continuing to deliver “perfection.”
